

Company's Articles of Association relating to the General Shareholders' Meeting

General Provision

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL

Clause 3. Any provisions not referred to herein shall be governed by the provisions of the Public Limited Companies Act and the Securities and Exchange Act mutatis mutandis and other laws which applicable or related to the operations of the Company.

Directors' Qualifications, Election and Rotation of Directors

CHAPTER 4 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Clause 13. The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of at least five (5) persons who shall be elected by a general meeting of shareholders. The Directors of the Company may or may not hold shares in the Company and at least half of total number of directors shall reside in the Kingdom.

Clause 14. The voting for the election of Directors of the Company shall be as follows:

- (1) Each shareholder shall have one vote for each share.
- (2) Each shareholder must exercise all the votes he has under item (1) to elect one or several persons to be directors but cannot divide his votes to any person particularly.
- (3) The candidates shall be ranked in order descending from the highest number of votes received to the lowest, and shall be elected as directors equivalent to the number of directors who are to be elected.
- (4) If there is a tie in the last to be elected and this exceeds the said number of directors, the presiding Chairman shall have an additional casting vote.

Clause 15. The Board of Directors shall elect one of the directors to be Chairman of the Board of Directors and another director to be Managing Director. The Managing Director shall have the powers and duties prescribed under these Articles of Association.

The Board of Directors may appoint one or several directors to be Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors as it deems appropriate. The Vice-Chairman has duties in activities as assigned by the Chairman.

A resolution of the said Board of Directors of the Company shall be passed by a majority vote.

Clause 16. The Board of Directors of the Company shall have the following authority and duties:

- (1) to manage the Company in accordance with laws, the Articles of Association, the Objectives of the Company and resolutions of the Meeting of shareholders;

- (2) to determine interim dividends for shareholders;
- (3) to determine payment of gratuity and award to officers or employees of the Company or of any persons who work for the Company on a permanent or non-permanent basis except for gratuity, pension or any other remuneration of the Directors;
- (4) to consider any strategic report.

In performing its powers and duties, the Board of Directors of the Company may assign the Managing Director, any or several directors or other person(s) to perform any act on behalf of the Board of Directors pursuant to these Articles of Association.

Clause 17. The authorized directors who can sign to bind the Company, including implementing the decision of the Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as the “Authorized Directors”) shall be two (2) directors jointly sign with the company seal's affixed, provided that the Board of Directors shall have the power to specify or amend the names of the Authorized Directors who shall sign with the company seal's affixed to bind the company.

The Authorized Directors may from time to time delegate any of their power to any person.

Clause 18. The Board of Directors Meeting shall be held at least four (4) times a year, each of which shall be held no more than three (3) months apart. The date, time and place of such meeting shall be at the discretion of the Chairman of the Company.

Clause 19. In summoning the meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman or his appointed person shall deliver the notice calling for the meeting to the directors at least seven (7) days before the meeting. In urgent circumstances for protection of the rights or benefits of the Company, the notice calling for the meeting may be performed by other means or the date of the meeting may be fixed to be sooner than such period.

Clause 20. At least half of all directors must be present to constitute a quorum for a Board of Directors Meeting.

If the Chairman of the Board of Directors is not present at the meeting or is not able to perform his duty, the Vice Chairman, if any, shall act as Chairman.

If there is no Vice-Chairman or if he/she could not perform his/her duty, the directors present at the meeting shall elect one (1) director to be a Chairman of the meeting.

Decisions in the meetings of the Board of Directors shall require a majority vote.

Each director is entitled to one (1) vote, but a director who has interests in any matter shall not be entitled to vote on such matter. In the event of a tie vote, the Chairman shall have an additional casting vote.

Clause 21. At the annual general meeting, one-third (1/3) of the directors, or if the number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third (1/3), shall retire from the office. The directors retiring from office in the first and second years after registration of Company shall be effected by means of drawing lots. In subsequent years, the director who has been in office for the longest term shall retire.

On any occasion, if the number of directors who have long been in office for an equal term exceeds the number to be retired on such occasion, the said directors shall retire by means of drawing lots.

A director subject to the retirement by the expiration of his term of office is eligible for re-election by the general meeting.

Clause 22. Apart from retirement upon expiration of the term of office, a director shall vacate office upon:

- (1) death;
- (2) resignation;
- (3) lack of qualifications or subject to prohibitive characteristics under the Laws;
- (4) being removed by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting prior to the expiration of the term of office by the vote of at least three fourths (3/4) of the shareholders who attend and have the right to vote at the meeting and who hold shares in aggregate no less than half of the shares held by the shareholders who attend and have the right to vote at the meeting;
- (5) being removed by a court order.

Clause 23. Any director wishing to resign from the director position shall submit a resignation letter to the Company. The resignation shall take effect from the date on which the resignation letter reaches the Company.

Clause 24. In the case of a vacancy on the Board of Directors prior to the expiration of the term of office due to death, resignation or for reasons otherwise than by rotation, the Board of Directors shall elect any person who is qualified and not subject to the prohibitive characteristics under the law as the substitute director at the subsequent Board of Directors meeting, unless the remaining term of office of the said director is less than two (2) months. The aforesaid substitute director shall retain his office only for the remaining term of office of the director whom he replaces.

If the retiring Company director has the power to perform an act to bind the Company, the Board of Directors shall have the power to cancel the said performance binding the Company and to give the newly appointed director equal power as the former director pursuant to the first paragraph to perform act to bind the Company.

The resolution of the Board of Directors under the first and second paragraphs shall consist of votes of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the remaining directors.

Clause 25. In case of vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting in the number of directors being less than the number required for a quorum, the remaining directors may perform the acts in the name of the Board of Directors only in matters relating to the calling of a shareholders meeting to elect directors to replace all the vacancies.

The aforesaid shareholders meeting shall be held within one (1) month of the date that the number of directors falls below the number required for a quorum.

The substitute director shall retain his office only for the remaining term of office of the director whom he replaces.

Clause 26. Directors shall be entitled to the remuneration in the form of reward, fees for attending a meeting, gratuity, bonus or other benefit as the Shareholders' Meeting considers. The remuneration may be fixed at a definite amount or prescribe by rule and fixed at a definite amount from time to time or taken effect until changes have occurred.

The contents in the first paragraph shall not affect the right of the director who is an employee of the Company to receive other remuneration and benefits as an officer or employee of the Company.

Clause 27. The Managing Director shall be delegated and have the powers and responsibilities in managing and controlling over the operations and management of the Company, including the day-to-day operations.
